An Imfudert Tramp.—John Muldoon, whose arrest by Officer Thompson is noted elsewhere, is a fair specimen of the impudent tramp. He called at several houses in the Eighth Ward and demanded money and eatables, and being refused both, was so impudent that he was summarily ejected from the premises. He then visited Justice Mix's office and demanded two cents for ferringe. The Squire stated to him that he could cross the river on the ferry without two cents, and advised him to leave the country. BEATING A PRESENCE—On Saturday BEATING A PRISONER.—On Saturday aftermoon John Muldoon was arrested in the Eighth Ward by Officer Thompson, for dronkenness. The officer started with his prisoner for the lockup, and had no difficulty until he reached 16th street, when Muldoon showed fight. He was overpowered, however, and with great difficulty pulled along up Chaplinestreet to 14th. Here he succeeded in freeing himself from Thompson, tearing the officer's clothes and breaking his watch chain in the scuiffic. Thompson found kimself obliged to use his mace, and did so rather freely, making some ugly wounds about Muldoon's head. The prisoner quieted down after this, and was landed in the lockup without further trouble.

ZANESVILLE RIOTERS BOUND OVER— The men engaged in the railroad riot at anesville were given a hearing at the Jourt House in that city on Friday af-ernoon. The court room was filled until here was scarcely standing room. The risoners were fourteen in number, and there was scarcely standing room. The prisoners were fourteen in number, and they were held in the sum of $500 each to appear at the November term of Court. Some of them succeeded in getting bondsmen, but the majority were committed. The law of Ohio fixes the highest penalty at sixty days in jail and a fine of $1,000, and thirty days and $500 fine for each additional offense.

No MEETING.-The *gentlemen who have undertaken to inaugurate an active Capital campaign in this city, have been particularly unfortunate. A meeting in the interests of Clarksburg had been extensively advertised to take place at the Court House Saturday evening, and Col. Wilson, Hon. John S. Carlile and John Whom, from, John S. Carrier and the City prepared to deliver addresses, but a heavy shower of rain prevented the meeting from being held, and it was indefinitely postponed.

EXCITEMENT AT ZANESVILLE. - The EXCITEMENT AT ZANENULLE. — The other day a man named Townsend, who had, a contract for building a large block of houses at Zanesville, Ohio, reduced the wages of his workmen. The railroad strikers waited on him in a body and compelled the hod carriers to quit work, and of course the brick layers were obliged to stop. Townsend was given ten minutes to leave the city with his family. He agreed to pay the men full wages, and they were permitted to return to work.

A collection is to be taken in all the Ohio Sunday Schools next Sunday for the benefit of the State Sunday School Union. Rev. Hite preached in Steenrod Chapel, Fulton, last evening, on "Christ as a Con-fidential Friend."

RATEROAD MATTERS.—There doesn't seem to be any change in the railroad outlook here, everything remaining in stora yee. No freight trains are running on either of the roads entering the city, nor is it likely when there will be any. We understand that Capt, Devries yesterdaysent word to the striking freightmen of the B. & O. Company that, he would like to have a talk with them, in the hope of effecting a compromise by which the running of trains could be resumed on this division (the fourth), which extends to Grafton. Only one of the strikers could be found, however, and so the proposed conference fell through. The strikers say they don't see any use in a conference, as they have made up their minds not tog to work until their demands are acceded to, and when the company are ready to give them what they deaire they can so notify them.

There will be no attempt made here at present to move any trains, we are informed by the railroad authorities. No firemen are to be had to run the trains, even should an attempt be made to move them.

> morning the staid Germans of our Brighton—the little village of Fulton morning the staid Germans of our Brighton—the little village of Fulton—were considerably excited over the suicide of August Miller, one of their well known citizens, a stonemason by occupation. Miller was found hanging to a tree on Mr. Kober's dairy farm, on the hill-side above Fulton. He had evidently been dead several hours, and the position in which the body was found showed that [he had deliberately prepared the fatal noose, attached it to a limb of the tree, and then swung himself into eternity. It is not definitely known when the act was committed, whether on the previous night or at an early hour in the morning. Miller was about forty-five years of age, and married. His wife keeps a salcon in Fulton. For several years past they have not been on good terms, and he has several times been arrested for assaulting her. He was very dissipated, and whisky is ascribed as the cause of the suicide.
